08 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, ) CASE NO. CR04-355-JCC
09 Plaintiff, )
10 v. ) SUMMARY REPORT OF U.S.
11 JEREMY STEVEN JABLONSKI, ) MAGISTRATE JUDGE AS TO 12 Defendant. ) ALLEGED VIOLATIONS
OF SUPERVISED RELEASE
13

14 An initial hearing on supervised release revocation in this case was scheduled before me
15 on July 5, 2006. The United States was represented by AUSA Tessa Gorman and the defendant
16 by Carol A. Koller. The proceedings were digitally recorded.

17 Defendant had been sentenced on or about June 17, 2005 by the Honorable John C.
18 Coughenour on a charge of Sexual Abuse of a Minor, and sentenced to 12 months custody, 2
19 years supervised release. (Dkt. 38). An amended judgment was entered on July 26, 2005,
20 amending the sentence to 12 months and one day, 2 years supervised release. (Dkt. 40).

21 The conditions of supervised release included the standard conditions plus the requirements
22 that defendant not possess any firearms, submit to mandatory drug testing, participate in a drug

01 dependency/narcotic addiction treatment and testing program as directed, submit to search,
02 participate in a mental health/sexual offender program which may include a sexual deviancy
03 program, actively participate and make reasonable progress in such program, refrain from the use
04 of alcohol and enter into an alcohol treatment program, have no contact with minor children
05 without the permission of probation officer, follow all lifestyle restrictions or treatment
06 requirements imposed by the defendant's therapist, and do not go to or reside in places where 07 minors are known to frequent without permission of probation officer.

08 On February 3, 2006 the defendant admitted to violating the conditions of supervised
09 release by failing to participate in a sexual offender treatment program, failing to complete 120
10 days of electronic home monitoring, and failing to report contact with law enforcement. (Dkt.
11 42). He was sentenced to time served. Supervised release was re-imposed for a period of 24
12 months. (Dkt. 49).

13 In an application dated June 9, 2006 (Dkt 51), U.S. Probation Officer Jerrod Akins alleged 14 the following violations of the conditions of supervised release:

15 1. Consuming alcohol on May 22, 2006, in violation of the special condition that he
16 abstain from the use of alcohol and/or other intoxicants during the term of supervision.

17 2. Committing the crime of assault fourth degree on May 22, 2006, in violation of the 18 general condition that he not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

19 Defendant was advised in full as to those charges and as to his constitutional rights.

20 Defendant admitted alleged violation one and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether
21 it occurred. Because violation two involves a pending criminal prosecution, defendant denied that
22 allegation and requested an evidentiary hearing, which is scheduled for August 15, 2006 before

01 the Honorable James P. Donohue.

02 I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated his supervised release as alleged 03 in violation one, and that the Court conduct a hearing on that violation limited to the issue of 04 disposition.

05 Pending a final determination by the Court, defendant is released on the conditions of 06 supervision, plus the additional condition of electronic home monitoring.

07 DATED this 5th day of July, 2006.
